Documentation
for Great Plains Communications

- CPNI rules are reviewed on a regular basis with employees that have access to CPNI.
- Employees with access to CPNI have been trained on when they are, and are not, authorized to use CPNI.
- A defined disciplinary process is in place for violations and for improper use of any customer information. This includes CPNI as well as information that is not CPNI.
- An outbound marketing supervisory review process has been established.
- Great Plains Communications maintains a record of any marketing campaigns of its own or its affiliates using customers' CPNI. These records are maintained for a minimum of one year.
- A process has been developed for notifying customers of their CPNI rights and requesting approval to use CPNI via the opt-out method.
- Great Plains Communications provides CPNI notification to customers every two years.
- A process has been established for noting customer accounts when notification is given and for noting the approval/denial status on each customer account.
- Great Plains Communications will not provide CPNI to third parties without the customer's approval.
- Notification and approval records are retained for at least one year.
